

DEMO S.A.
PHARMACEUTICAL INDUSTRY

QA Assistant Intern

DEMO S.A. is one of the major pharmaceutical manufacturers in Greece with a strong presence in hospital market, ranking first among all Greek pharmaceutical companies in terms of units sold. Our product portfolio includes injectable generic pharmaceutical formulations from several therapeutic categories. The company's manufacturing plant in Athens.

In this dynamic and fast growing environment we are looking for a QA Assistant Intern.

Description

Main duties and responsibilities:

- Undertake Compliance, Validation & Documentation activities of manufacturing lines for pharmaceutical products.
- Identify needs for issuing written procedures or revision of existing
- Act as a reference point for implementation of deviation investigations resulting from production processes
- Perform analysis of change controls and maintain relevant records
- Implement and monitor the progress of the Corrective and Preventive Action Plan resulting from findings/observations of either Internal Audits and/or Audits from customers/ organizations/authorities
- Prepare the protocols of process validation, cleaning validation and any other procedures related to the production. Attend the validation testing and prepare the Report.
- Run statistical analysis in order to calculate – determine the ability to complete the actions referring to internal or external Audits

The Company offers continuous learning and development opportunities, a friendly and challenging working environment.